

Attachment: 2.

List of Application Documents for Chinese Government Scholarship

1. Copy of Passport Home Page. If the validity of the applicant's current passport does not meet the requirement (meaning the passport expires before September 2022), please apply for a new passport before submitting the application;
2. Notarized highest diploma. Prospective diploma winners must submit official proof of student status by their current school and then submit their graduation certificates or degree certificates before June 30, 2022. Documents in languages other than Chinese or English must be attached with notarized Chinese or English translations;
3. Academic transcripts (from the undergraduate program onwards). Copies of academic records from first to last semester during the undergraduate, graduate (if any), and doctoral programs (if any) shall be provided. These transcripts shall be issued and sealed by the attending university's academic affairs office, graduate school, or student management department. They can be in Chinese or English, but must be attached with notarized English translations if they are in foreign languages other than English;
4. Language qualification certificates. Applicants for Chinese-taught programs must submit valid HSK Level 4 reports with a score of over

180 points within two years; Applicants who have obtained a degree from a Chinese university with Chinese as the teaching language shall provide corresponding diploma. Applicants for other language-taught programs shall provide relevant language proficiency certificates, like IELTS or TOFEL report;

5. A study plan proposal in China. A study plan written in Chinese or English shall contain more than 1,000 characters or words with a focus on professional background, academic ability, the applicant's strengths and characteristics, future professional research direction and study plan, etc., and can only be written in Chinese or English. The study plan proposal will be used as an important reference for the academic assessment by experts.

6. Recommendation letters. Two letters of recommendation (written only in Chinese or English) from professors or associate professors shall be submitted. These letters shall describe the applicant's objectives of learning in China, comprehensive abilities, and evaluation of future growth, as well as the cooperation between the supervisors or the exchange between universities both in China and abroad. The letters should contain the letter writers' signatures and their contact details;

7. A photocopy of the Foreigner Physical Examination Form completed in English (the original copy shall be kept by the applicant). The form is designed by the Chinese quarantine authority and can be obtained from the dispatching authority. The physical examinations must cover all the items listed in the Foreigner Physical Examination Form. Incomplete records or those without the signature of the attending physician, the official stamp of the hospital, or a sealed photograph of the applicants are invalid. Please select the appropriate time to take a physical examination as the result is valid for only 6 months.

8. Non-criminal record report. The applicant shall submit a valid certificate of Non-Criminal Record issued by the local public security authority, usually issued within 6 months prior to the submission date of the application.

9. Research results (if any). Abstract of the thesis in the previous study period and introduction of the supervisor, copies of the cover, table of contents and pages of the published thesis, supporting documents of academic and scientific research achievements, inventions and patents, etc. can be provided.

Reminder: Uploaded supporting documents must be clear, authentic and valid. Applicants are recommended to use a professional device to scan the relevant documents. Applicants shall bear the consequences caused by unclear or unidentifiable uploaded materials.